A woman with food poisoning is wearing a low-cut maroon dress that reveals cleavage. While looking over a women's dresser bedtime attire, a man holds up a very small pair of panties and then offers to undress her, but promises not to look. She then sheepishly says she doesn't look the way we see her standing in front of her (a head and shoulders shot where we see her bare shoulders until she slips onto her evening dress on her). When Lindsey asks what videos Ben took out for her while she was sick, she jokes that it was mostly Japanese animated pornography. Ben picks up Lindsey's cell phone and tells the caller that he's Lindsey's domestic-sex slave, then tells her to call her mother after she hangs up. Ben jokingly wears jockstrap on the outside of his pants. Lindsey and Ben are coming home, kissing passionately and starting to undress. His shirt comes off and the two fall side by side on the bed where they do more passionate kisses. sex is implied. A friend of Lindsey's is showing cleavage. Lindsey and Ben have some passionate, dressed kisses while on the dance floor. After having sex (that we can't see), Ben is overwhelmed and says: It was like... It was you... They're both in bed under the covers. No nudity. They embrace me a little and kiss him briefly. The reporter (commenting on celebrations after the game) claims to have seen a variety of topless women (we don't see them). Ben's friends find him disheveled and step in, ask where he got a certain Red Sox videotape, and then shower him. We don't see nudity. The doctor's friend works on his groin, and Ben asks, Why are you shaving my balls? A woman's chest size to larger due to pregnancy is being talked about while she is seen & part of the convoy of 2nd woman talking about her own breast size ben and lindsay have some passionate kisses on a baseball field. As mentioned earlier - there are many sexual comments on the list. There was too much listing. The following Parents Guide can sell important printing points.
